

Trapp as the director of the Air Force's Legislative Liaison Office. I know the general as a fellow South Dakotan and a fine soldier.

The good news is that General Trapp has been selected as the next commander of the 12th Air Force. The bad news is that Congress is losing a great legislative liaison, not to mention another fine person from the Rushmore State.

Through the past 28 years, General Trapp has served in the Air Force with honor and distinction. He is a command pilot with over 3,000 flying hours. In Southeast Asia he flew over 700 combat hours and later commanded our air wing in Panama during Operation Just Cause. He has held 5 commanding positions, which is a real tribute to his leadership capabilities.

I would like to think that General Trapp's dedication to service and loyalty to his troops was instilled as a boy growing up in South Dakota. It was there where he attended South Dakota State on a ROTC scholarship, and where his parents and family still reside. I think he is also a product of the U.S. Air Force. The combination has produced an excellent commander that our Nation can be proud of.

I can think of no person more qualified to lead and care for our men and women than Gen. Lanny Trapp. To him, his wife Nancy and daughter Bethany, we wish God's blessing and Godspeed.

NEW TRADE POLICY FOR ALL AMERICANS

(Mr. DEFAZIO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. DEFAZIO. Madam Speaker, the proponents of fast track would have us believe today's legislative battle is about whether or not the United States will trade. This is not about a battle between protection as free traders, but rather a struggle over the conditions of that trade and who will benefit from that trade. On one side, the President, the entire administration, the Republican leadership, and a fleet of corporate CEO's who have actually been given office space right downstairs in the Capitol in violation of the House rules.

On our side, 80 percent of the Democrats and a small group of Republicans. We think it is time to overhaul our failing trade policy, a policy that has brought $160 billion trade deficits, exported jobs, driven down wages, weakened our environmental and food safety laws, all in the name of free trade. A policy that undermines our values to encourage a race to the bottom; enriching a few multinational corporations and their CEO's at the expense of the majority of American workers and communities.

"No" to the threats, "no" to the silent promises, "no" to the legal campaign bribery, "no" to fast track, and "yes" to the beginnings of a new trade policy that benefits all Americans.

TIME FOR IRS REFORM

(Mr. FORBES asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. FORBES. Madam Speaker, the American people recently saw the IRS on trial. They saw a parade of witnesses come before the Congress to testify about the naked abuse of power over at the Internal Revenue Service. We saw current and former IRS agents who had to testify in secret because they feared for their lives. We saw ordinary citizens, taxpayers, who talked about how an audit turned their entire lives upside down, with some of them suffering great financial loss that will never be recovered. We saw a government agency totally out of control, lacking accountability, an agency where one is guilty until proven innocent.

Madam Speaker, the IRS needs radical reform. This House has taken great steps to begin that process, and we look forward to the other body and the White House to join us in this effort to reform the Internal Revenue Service, which is an agency of intimidation rather than enforcement.

STRAIGHT TALK ABOUT FAST TRACK

(Mr. TRAFICANT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. TRAFICANT. Madam Speaker, let us tell it like it is. The last fast track traded Ma Bell for Taco Bell. Today's fast track will trade more American jobs and dollars and factories to all of Central America for a '48 Ford pickup truck, two loads of pinto beans and three ballplayers to be named later. Beam me up.

In addition, I predict we will get another 25 tons of heroin, another 35 tons of cocaine, and a lot more economic development in the form of prisons, I say to my colleagues. Let us have a little straight talk. "This dog don't hunt. Pull this turkey."

I yield back the balance of any jobs we have left.

FOREIGN OPERATIONS APPROPRIATION CONFERENCE REPORT

(Mr. PAUL asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. PAUL. Madam Speaker, I rise to point out to the House a piece of legislation that I am sure will be passed tonight or in the morning in the wee hours when a lot of people are not paying much attention, and that is the foreign operations appropriations conference report.

I would like to point out that buried in this report is a $3.5 billion new program called the new agreements to borrow, further funding for the IMF. These are the funds that will be used to bail out Third World nations and also bail out bankers and industries that have invested in these nations such as in Mexico or Indonesia.

This is considered not to be expensive because of our special accounting procedure here, it is not on budget. It is supposed to be for free. But let me call my colleagues' attention to this: new agreements to borrow, IMF, new funding in the foreign operations bill report. This is inflationary, it is detrimental to the dollar, and it is subsidizing foreign interests as well as special banking and industrial interests here.

AMERICA NEEDS RECIPROCITY, NOT DUPLICITY, IN TRADE

(Mr. PASCRELL asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PASCRELL. Madam Speaker, the supporters of fast track never discuss the massive trade imbalance which grows every year, never. This reflects job loss in America. The supporters are good, very good, at denigrating organized labor's efforts to defeat fast track. Organized labor has a vested interest. The jobs of members in various unions and the jobs in nonunion workplaces are at stake.

Why is their effort a special interest, and the expenditures of millions by multinational corporations simply "in the best interests of the American economy?" How can some Members of this House who vehemently defend the sovereignty of our Nation with foreign powers now surrender the oversight of the trade deal implementation to the World Trade Organization?

The WTO has just ruled in favor of Costa Rica and India on textile matters. What are we doing for our own sovereignty? Why sell us out again? Reciprocity, Mr. President, reciprocity, Mr. Speaker, not duplicity. Vote "no" on fast track.

COALGATE IN UTAH

(Mr. GIBBONS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. GIBBONS. Madam Speaker, today I rise to inform my Members about Coalgate; no, not the toothpaste or the university, but another campaign scandal. In the heat of the 1996 campaign, President Clinton created the Grand Staircase-Escalante National Monument in Utah, which consisted of more than 1.7 million acres of land, an area larger than the State of Delaware.

The White House claims this monument was needed to protect one of the most pristine areas in America. However, I would contend that 62 billion tons of low-sulfur coal reserve was the real reason for this designation. The
